Welcome from County Chairman

Tá an áthas orm na focail seo a leanas a scríobh ar an lá mór seo don iomáint i gContae an Dúin.

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you all to the city of Newry and to the Kingdom of Mourne.

We are very proud of our county ground at Pairc Esler and of the magnificent facilities available to the Gaels of Down at the Abbey Grammar School and at St Colman's College. As we enjoy the facilities today it is an opportunity for me to publically acknowledge the support we receive throughout the year. The support from the Ballyholland club is typical of the support we receive from our clubs across the county.

I want to thank our referees and our officials and I wish them well. I also want to acknowledge our administrators who have stepped up to the mark in actively seeking to host this National blitz and in particular the work done by Rúnaí Coiste Chontae, Sean Og McAteer, our County Games manager Conor O'Toole and our Regional Hurling Development officer, Michael McCullough.

I wish the players, coaches and supporters every success and I hope they get as much enjoyment from today as I will. Today is a celebration of hurling and I look forward to enthusiastic, committed and skilful play but especially to a spirit of respect for our fellow Gaels and for this great game.

I have been reminded that the work of Development squads is not measured by what happens on one particular day or by who wins; that happens in later years. What is important is that every coach and player is encouraged and helped to be the best that they can be and that is my wish for each of you today.

Agus ba mhaith liom tú go léir sa bhaile turas sábháilte.

The Adrian Murray Cup

The trophy for today's final commemorates the memory of the late Adrian Murray from Westmeath. Adrian who passed away in October 2005 was a member of the Crookedwood Hurling & St. Lomans Football Clubs - having given service to both as a Player. He was also an efficient Referee in both Codes.

Adrian served the Westmeath GAA in different capacities, particularly as Secretary of the Minor Board - where his attention to detail and administrative skills were widely recognised. He also served as Assistant Secretary of the Board and as Fixtures Secretary.

Adrian was a true gentleman of the GAA, amiable, affable and always willing to help. His first love was Hurling and it is indeed fitting that today's final commemorates such a sterling servant of Cumann Luthchleas Gael.
